BENEFIT TO WILDLIFE
A bat house provides protected roosting areas for bats, allowing them to stay warm and conserve energy or safely raise their young.

INSTRUCTIONS
The bat house can be mounted on a pole or on the side of a building, at least 15 feet off the ground. The higher the installation, the more likely you are to attract bats. See the article below for more directions on where to place your bat house based on the climate in your region.

ADDITIONAL INFO
http://content.yardmap.org/learn/habitat-feature-bat-houses/